RE: United States v. Oyewale Olanibi
07 Cr. 899 (VM)

Dear Judge Marrero,

I, the defendant in the above-mentioned action, hereby submits this letter requesting relief from Your Honor in regards to the representation being provided by present counsel, Mr. Roland Thau, Esq., in these proceedings. My claims and contentions are as follows:

I am having conflicts with present counsel in obtaining a copy of my Pre-Sentence Investigation report (PSR) and my personal property from the Government. I am asking this Court's kind intervention in assisting me to obtain a copy of the PSR and my personal property from Government. After entering my plea of guilty, counsel promised to assist in retrieving personal property being held by the Government and to provide a copy of PSR prior to sentencing. However, until the present date he has not complied nor made any efforts to assist me with these matters.

I have left numerous messages for counsel, continuously demand for his assistance and have never received a reply. On certain instances when I have spoken to attorney, he has admitted to having the PSR in his possession, yet he has failed to provide me a copy or review it with me for that matter. I am entitled to review PSR with adequate anticipation of sentencing so that any objections could be properly presented. Counsel's neglect is depriving me of this right and interfering with these proceedings. I would greatly appreciate Your Honor's assistance with obtaining this report prior to sentencing.

I am requesting of Your Honor to assist me in this matter pursuant to Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Rule 32(f). I thank you for Your Honor's kind attention and relief in the matters herein.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dated: September 1, 2008

Oyewale Olanibi
